

Advances in Economic Theory
CIREQ Workshop in honor of Joseph Greenberg
 Friday, October 16, 2009,
 McGill University (Room: ADMIN 310)

9:00-9:30	Coffee and Introduction
9:30-10:10	Giacomo Bonanno (University of California Davis): Revealed preference, iterated belief revision and dynamic games
10:10-10:50	Chih-Chun Yang (University of Rochester): Epistemic Foundation of Bayesian Coalitional Rationalizability
10:50-11:20	Coffee
11:20-12:00	Rabah Amir (University of Arizona): Discounted Supermodular Stochastic Games: Theory and Applications
12:00-12:40	Efe Postalci (Izmir University of Economics): Efficiency, Stability and Altruistic Behavior in Directed Networks
12:40-14:00	Lunch
14:00-14:40	Larry Epstein (Boston University): Three Paradoxes for the 'Smooth Ambiguity' Model of Preference
14:40-15:20	Ruqu Wang (Queen's University): Common Value Auctions with Refund Policies
15:20-16:00	Reza Oladi (Utah State University): On Economics of Narcotics Production and Trade
16:00-16:30	Coffee
16:30-17:10	Tayfun Sonmez (Boston College): Altruistic Kidney Exchange
17:10-17:50	Joseph Greenberg (Tel Aviv University): On the Paradoxical Nature of Belief: The clashing of Rationality, Tenacity, and Temporality
18:00	Closing

