

ATELIER CIREQ WORKSHOP

Interdisciplinary Perspectives on AI as an Agent of Change

27 mars / March 2024

McGill University
855, rue Sherbrooke Ouest, Leacock 232
Montréal (Québec) H3A 2T7

Sous la direction de / Organized by

Fabian Lange (Economics, McGill University, CIRANO, CIREQ)

Victoria Zinde-Walsh (Economics, McGill University, CIREQ)

PROGRAMME / PROGRAM

13h15 – 13h45 Inscription / Registration

13h55 – 14h00 Allocution d'ouverture / Opening Remarks

SESSION 1 - Présentations / Presentations

14h00 – 15h30

Jackie Cheung (CIFAR AI Chair, Mila; School of Computer Science, McGill University)

Co-adapting with Large Language Models: On the Capabilities and Uses of Generative AI for Natural Language

Avi Goldfarb (Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto)

Pause AI Research?

Remi Duquette (Vice President, Innovation & Industrial AI, Maya HTT)

Practical Examples of the Impacts of AI on the Industrial and Manufacturing Workforce

15h30 – 16h00 Pause / Break

SESSION 2 - Table ronde / Roundtable Discussion : The Potential Benefits and Risks of Wide Adoption of AI

16h00 – 17h00

Modérateurs / Moderators

Fabian Lange (Economics, McGill University, CIRANO, CIREQ)

Victoria Zinde-Walsh (Economics, McGill University, CIREQ)

Commentateurs / Discussants

Jackie Cheung (CIFAR AI Chair, Mila; School of Computer Science, McGill University)

Remi Duquette (Vice President, Innovation & Industrial AI, Maya HTT)

Avi Goldfarb (Rotman School of Management, University of Toronto)

Jocelyn Maclure (Philosophy, McGill University)